

K-Love is an important part of my spiritual life. I need a radio station like this to survive the bombardment of revenue based radio stations with all the commercials that do nothing to encourage or promote social compassion or encouragement. They just add to the moral and ethical decay that is taking place with the eroding of all the values that provide hope and inspiration.